

NOVEMBER 24 · Christ the King Sunday | Almighty God, we come to you as the universal church to celebrate Jesus as the Lord of Lords, King of Kings. You reign almighty and all power is yours. May you be glorified today and every day until you return. Amen. (Revelation 17:14)

NOVEMBER 25 | Lord Jesus, you taught me how to live, and it includes life within a community of believers. And in this community, you taught me how to give encouragement, and how to build up others. Let me put this teaching into practice, giving others words of hope and of life. Amen. (1 Thessalonians 5:11)

NOVEMBER 26 | God, there is so much work to do in this world! Good work. Work that brings your kingdom in heaven here on earth. Work that shines a light for you. I do not want to be a busybody. Instead, I want to be busy serving and honoring you. So, empower me with energy, excitement, stamina, health, and creativity to do your work. Amen. (2 Thessalonians 3:11-13)

NOVEMBER 27 | God, thank you for your sovereignty, unlimited power, greatness, and presence in our lives. We have nothing to fear with you as our God! Amen. (Daniel 7:27)

NOVEMBER 28 · Thanksgiving Day | Dear Heavenly Father, I give thanks for the pleasure of gathering together with family and friends. I give thanks for the life you have blessed me with. I thank you for the abundance of food, shelter, and providing for all our needs. Amen. (Psalm 107:1)

NOVEMBER 29 | Lord, even though we make mistakes at times, you have the power to redeem all things. In you, I am made new. Lord, use even my brokenness to bring about righteousness in your time. Amen. (2 Samuel 11)

NOVEMBER 30 | My Father, you have put me in charge of much: spouses and children and careers and resources. With all of these, help me to be a faithful and wise manager. May I steward well, giving selflessly and thoughtfully as you modeled for me. Amen. (Luke 12:42-43)

ST. ANDREW

NOVEMBER 1 · All Saints' Day | Today, Lord, may I remember loved ones who have gone before me in death. I thank you, Lord, for their time on earth and the mark they left for you, for me, and for our children to come. Thank you for the sacrifices made by those who have gone before us. Bless the memories of your saints. May I learn to walk wisely from their examples of faith, dedication, worship, and love. Amen. (Hebrews 11:1-2)

NOVEMBER 2 | Dear Heavenly Father, I lift up your church body. Help me to have a humble and gentle heart. Help me to walk in a manner worthy of the calling you have given me. Equip our leaders to guide us. In your mighty name we pray. Amen. (Ephesians 4:1-3)

NOVEMBER 3 | Father, may my heart fully embrace you as the faithful one. You are the one who is loyal and trustworthy. May I have wisdom beyond my years to understand “through faith in Christ—the righteousness that comes from God on the basis of faith” is how you ask me to live. May my faithfulness to others be a reflection of your faithfulness to me. In your Son's holy name. Amen. (Philippians 3:7-11)

NOVEMBER 4 | Dear God, may your light shine through me. May people see the joy in me that comes from loving you and helping others. Amen. (Matthew 5:16)

NOVEMBER 5 · Election Day | Thank you, Lord, for the reminder to pray for our country and the leaders who govern. Give them wisdom. Cultivate in me a prayerful heart during times like these. Today I pray for this world and all who inhabit it. Amen. (2 Chronicles 7:14)

NOVEMBER 6 | Lord, you fill me with your Spirit so that I may know the way to live. Yet as I go, I am also called to show others the way. Help me find someone to invest in, like Paul chose Silas, to travel with through life, to watch and learn to do the same. Amen. (Acts 15:40)

NOVEMBER 12 | God, you are always near, but I tend to drift away from you. As a family and a church, help us to seek you and remain committed to turn to you—over and over. Fill our youth with the heart's desire to know you more and more each day. Amen. (Isaiah 55:6)

NOVEMBER 13 | Dear God, you have searched me and know me. Calm my anxious thoughts. Silence my hurtful words to others. Lead me on the right path to bring your kingdom to earth. Amen. (Psalm 137)

NOVEMBER 14 | Lord, I tend to stumble through life, not knowing what to do. I seek after righteousness, but I don't know where it can be found. Help me to remember, Lord, that to find righteousness I must first walk with you in faithfulness. Amen. (Habakkuk 2:4)

NOVEMBER 15 | Dear God, you are my peace. You are the lighthouse that guides me through the darkness to arrive safely on the shore. Let me look to you each day to be the person you want me to be. Amen. (Psalm 27:1)

NOVEMBER 16 | Emmanuel, you are our perfect example of how to imitate good. Every time I am tempted to imitate what is wrong, redirect me towards your higher ways. I pray for those who have not seen you, that they may become more attuned to your holy presence and love. Amen. (3 John 11)

NOVEMBER 17 | My God, may I be reminded when I need self-control to walk in your ways and not the ways of the world. Lead me to be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry, because human anger does not produce the righteousness that you desire. Amen. (James 1:19-20)

NOVEMBER 7 | I am reminded, Father, as we enter this season of thanksgiving, that your presence is always before me. Even in those times when life isn't fair or circumstances seem out of my control, I find my heart is thankful for your “ever-presence.” Remind me if I face the sun the shadows will fall behind me, but if I turn my back on the sun all the shadows will be in front of me. Keep me facing you with a thankful heart. Amen. (1 Thessalonians 5:18)

NOVEMBER 8 | Heavenly Father, thank you for giving me such an amazing understanding of who you are and what you desire from your children. Thank you that Jesus was both the sin offering who paid the price for my sins, and the burnt offering who willingly gave his life to fulfill your plans and purposes for the redemption of the world. Help me present my body in continual devotion and dedication to you by giving myself to your service. Amen. (Leviticus 6:13)

NOVEMBER 9 | Lord, I am so quick to see the spec in my neighbor's eye. How can I miss the spec in my own eye? It is so close to me, it looks like a plank! May I strive first to clean up my own life. Then, I will be prepared to help my neighbor clean up their lives when they are ready. Amen. (Matthew 7:5)

NOVEMBER 10 | Sovereign Lord, may I come to you when I am weary and burdened, and in these moments may my soul rest in you. Help me to take your yoke and learn from you, for you are gentle and humble in heart. May I be encouraged to remember your yoke is easy and your burden is light. Amen. (Matthew 5:5)

NOVEMBER 11 · Veterans Day | Dear Heavenly Father, our brothers and sisters need your prayers and blessings when called to sacrifice their lives to defend our freedom and the freedom of others around the world. I also pray for you to bless the families willing to sacrifice their loved ones' time for the freedom of mankind. Amen. (Psalm 41:1-3)

NOVEMBER 18 | God Almighty, you alone deserve to be worshiped! You deserve to be given credit for the blessings, abilities, and open doors that have been given. How often do I take credit for these because I am too embarrassed to mention your name? Help me to give credit where credit is due so others can worship you, too. Amen. (Daniel 2:28)

NOVEMBER 19 | God, today I am thankful for the people whom you have blessed me with in relationship (name them). I am thankful for the ways you have granted me success (name them). I acknowledge that this is a result of your good hand upon me. How grateful I am, Lord. Amen. (Ezra 7:6b, 9)

NOVEMBER 20 | Dear God, may your loving arms encircle those who are grieving. Give all of us strength and faith to endure seemingly endless difficult times. May I trust in you without needing proof or signs because your love endures forever. Amen. (Isaiah 12:2)

NOVEMBER 21 | Everlasting God, thank you for your many promises revealed through scripture that give us hope. Amen. (Romans 5:1-5)

NOVEMBER 22 | Christ Jesus, I pray for strength within so that you will dwell in my heart through faith. Your love is beyond my comprehension—wider and longer and higher and deeper than I can believe. Amazingly, you can do immeasurably more than all I ask or imagine. To you be the glory throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen. (Ephesians 3:14-21)

NOVEMBER 23 | Lord, you have given me the gift of the Holy Spirit. When I am unsure of what to say, the Spirit gives me words to speak in that moment, if I abide in you. Lord, teach me what to say. Amen. (Mark 13:11; Luke 12:11-12)
